MUSEUM LECTURE Wednesday, October 12, 8:30 p.m.

The second of four Junior Council-sponsored lectures on The Cleveland Museum of Art's new Golden Anniversary acquisitions will be presented Wednesday evening, October 12 at 8:30. Mr. Ernst Kitzinger will discuss the rare GROUP OF EARLY CHRISTIAN MARBLES (one of the highlights of the Museum's current exhibit) in the context of the history of early Christian art.

Mr. Kitzinger is professor of Byzantine Art and Archeology at Dumbarton Oaks in Washington, D.C. He earned his degrees from the universities of Munich and Rome and has published two books as well as numerous articles in the Dumbarton Oaks Papers and other journals.
